Temple-Inland's Pat Maley Honored with ASPI Customer Executive of the Year Award

The Association of Suppliers to the Paper Industry (ASPI) has named J. Patrick (Pat) Maley III of Temple-Inland as its 2010 ASPI Customer Executive of the Year. Maley serves as President, Chief Operating Officer, and Director of Temple-Inland, which is headquartered in Austin, Texas.

The Customer Executive of the Year Award is the highest honor that ASPI can bestow on an individual. It is granted to a paper industry executive who has demonstrated extraordinary effectiveness in working with a range of suppliers to enhance productivity, efficiency, and effectiveness of his or her company using a wide spectrum of supplied products and services.

ASPI President Bob Gallo commented "Since implementing their 'chasing perfection' initiative, the Temple-Inland management team led by Pat Maley III has clearly succeeded in creating sustainable value as evidenced by their most recent four years of profitable growth. This achievement is even more impressive considering Temple-Inland's nearly exclusive reliance on the North American market region."

Temple-Inland is a low-cost, high-efficiency producer of corrugated packaging and building products. In corrugated packaging, where Temple-Inland is currently the number three producer in North America, the company reports the largest increase in return on assets (ROA) of its peer group, and has exceeded industry growth in box shipments over the past three years. Temple-Inland's building products group manufactures a portfolio of products for residential and commercial construction markets. A leader in the building products business, Temple-Inland has generated ROI well in excess of the cost of capital over the past 10 years. Additional information about Temple-Inland is available at www.templeinland.com.

Maley joined Temple-Inland in 2003. He has 27 years of industry experience that includes 11 years at International Paper. A photo of him is available on request to Colleen Walker (cwalker@aspinet.org).
