Colleen Walker joins ASPI as Director of Member Relations

ASPI is pleased to announce that Colleen Walker has joined ASPI as Director of Member Relations. Colleen will work closely with the ASPI Board and membership to enhance consistent value delivery to the ASPI membership. She will also focus on recruiting new members to the organization.

Colleen has worked in the pulp and paper industry for more than ten years, with tenures at both manufacturers and suppliers. Colleen participated primarily in new product development efforts and business development activities while at Westvaco and Tenneco Packaging. Colleen joins ASPI after six years with the Center for Paper Business and Industry Studies, where she was Associate Director for Industry Liaison with primary responsibility for increasing connectivity between the Center and the paper industry.

Colleen received her undergraduate degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of Delaware, and a M.S. and Ph.D. from the Institute of Paper Science and Technology.

The Association of Suppliers to the Paper Industry (ASPI) is a non-profit association of member companies that supply a range of products and services to paper producers. ASPI sponsors the only industry meetings designed by and for supplier executives, and this forum offers an outstanding platform for presenting a unified voice to the industry. All ASPI meetings are held in strict accordance to ASPI'S anti-trust guidelines.
